

COLEGIO MAYOR UNIVERSIDAD DE NUESTRA SEÑORA DEL ROSARIO SCHOOL OF INTERNATIONAL, POLITICAL AND URBAN STUDIES

Call for Applications
Full-time professor

The school invites all those interested in joining the Political Science and Government and International Relations Programmes that meet the profile outlined in this call to participate in the admission process to start an academic career at Universidad el Rosario.

1. Position to filled:

The School seeks to hire a full-time professor (category to be defined according to academic and teaching experience), with a permanent contract to carry out teaching activities at undergraduate and graduate level, develop research and extension projects, and participate in the activities and institutional development of the School and the University.

2. CV Requirements:

- a) Minimum Academic Training: Professional with a PhD or close to submitting and presenting his/her thesis in Political Science, International Relations, Government and Public Policy (Thesis submission should be no later than June 2021).
- b) Academic Production: The applicant must attach his/her curriculum vitae with his/her national and international academic production. Likewise, he/she should list national and international conferences and additional activities of his/her academic and professional work history that are relevant.
- c) Teaching Experience: Applicants must include in their curriculum vitae the teaching and research experience that they can certify at the time of selection.
- d) Professional service activities: The applicant may list the organisations to which he/she belongs, if he/she is a reviewer of articles in indexed journals, if he/she has held administrative positions in academic organisations and others that he/she considers relevant (thesis direction, etc)
- e) Awards: The applicant may list any prizes, scholarships, or awards received that he/she can certify.
- f) Language: The applicant must prove mastery of a second language by means of internationally recognised tests (attach certificate B2 or higher). The tests and minimum scores that the University recognises, to justify language proficiency at B2 level, can be found at: <https://urosario.edu.co/Profesores/Vida-academica/idiomas/>. The applicant may also accredit a second language by presenting a master's degree, doctorate and others issued in the language in which the respective studies were carried out.

Required documentation:

1. Updated CV.
2. A letter of interest explaining your profile, suitability, and research agenda.
3. Two letters of recommendation from academics who have first-hand knowledge of your academic work (those who hold a teaching post at another institution at the time of application are exempted).
4. Two examples of courses with their respective syllabi that you could teach.
5. A sample of your research work in English or Spanish (chapter, published article, etc).

Universidad del Rosario is an institution of higher education with high quality accreditation issued by the Ministry of National Education through Resolution 13599 of December 2019 and belongs to the select group of 11 institutions that to date are accredited for eight (8) years.

Candidates must send the above documents in Word or pdf format to the Administrative and Financial Department: mariab.salcedo@urosario.edu.co by February 15, 2021 at the latest.

Call's start and end date: From December 15, 2020 to February 15, 2021